COMEDY AT ORRHS BY SENIOR CLASS

Final touches are being added to "Love is Contagious", the senior class play offering being presented at Old Rochester Regional High School this Friday and Saturday nights at 8:15. Jo-Anne Wright and Merton Howes have the leads in this light-as-the-spring story of a pretty blonde Kansas miss who comes to New York's Greenwich Village to rejoin her brother and finds his friends a 'little' different from people back home.

Jo Wright and Mert Howes rehearse for the senior class play "Love is Contagious".

Quite different and quite difficult is Sam Harway, a bachelor artist who wishes Sally would go back home to Kansas with her motherly instinct, that is until he discovers she isn't that bad looking. The play is filled with "kooks", from Harry the horseplayer who's down on his luck, to Miss Lerner, the old maid spinster who makes everybody's business her own. But, basically, "Love is Contagious" is a love story, the romance of Sally and Sam that comes into full bloom as the play moves to its inevitable ending: Sam wins Sally or Sally wins Sam, take your choice. The final scene is both tender and amusing as "all's well that ends well".

Others in the cast are Mike Collyer as

Grange

The bi-monthly meeting of Mattapoisett Grange was held last Thursday night with the worthy master, Susan LaFleur, presiding. Report of the successful auction was given by the chairman, Otto Kellish, who also thanked all who helped in any way. Honored guest was Manuel Roderick, master of Fairhaven Grange.

The birthdays of Susan LaFleur and Albert Pemberton were recognized. Mrs. Kellish reported on the Easter cards her committee sent to the shut-ins.

This was the night the Junior Grange entertained the Subordinate Grange, a yearly event to express their gratitude.

The program was directed by the junior lecturer, Mary Beth Breton. She presented Mark Harris, master, who rendered a trumpet solo, with Mr. Walter Caswell at the piano. Gail Roberts played a piano solo and Katherine Buckley a violin solo. "A Fellow's Mother" was given by Mark Harris as a tribute to Mothers. Mr. Caswell played for the "Hawaiian Dance" in costume by Paul Alves, Ray Buckley, Robert Linhares and Robert Burbank. Harlene Fearing and her kazoo band played America, Yankee Doodle and Battle Hymn of the Republic.

In closing the program the Juniors marched to the master's station where the worthy master of the Juniors presented the subordinate master a check for $25.00 to the Grange. They then marched to the refreshment table, decorated with a lovely floral portant industry by 1877, but a fleet still existed. Mattapoisett contributed more ships, and more barks, than any other ship building town listed. New Bedford/Dartmouth listings take second place with Fairhaven and Medford in third and fourth respectively. Thirty-eight towns from Maine to Pennsylvania contributed the remaining sixty-three whalers for a total listing of one hundred and twenty-eight.

centerpiece made by Mrs. Harris, and cakes made by the Junior girls and punch by the boys. They served the members of the Grange who sponsors this fine group of boys and girls.

The next meeting of Mattapoisett Grange will be May 16th when Rep. Charles MacKenzie will be the speaker. Honored guests will be members of the American Legion and auxiliary. Mrs. Anna Bradley will be honored with the presentation of her 50-year jewel. Mrs. Walter Scholz of Lakeville will be the soloist. Mr. and Mrs. William Smith are in charge of the social hour.

A short business meeting will be at 7:30 and the program at 8 P.M. is open to anyone not a Grange member.

Whaling Contribution

MATTAPOISETT PROVIDED THE SHIPS

Mattapoisett, and the same area when it was still called Rochester, figured prominently in several areas of the whaling industry. The building of whaleships was probably the most important contribution.

An insurance listing of the world's active vessels in the year 1877 lists whalers as a separate risk category. The listing records where each of the vessels was built, and provides an interesting comment on the size of Mattapoisett's efforts in relation to other towns.

Whaling had declined seriously as an im-

The "Other Rigs" included five Half Brigs, three Brigs, one Barkentine, and one Screw Steamer.

Mattapoisett statistics show an additional twelve barks, and two schooners, not engaged in whaling. The oldest Mattapoisett vessel listed is the PRESIDENT, a bark built in 1815. The largest is the LIVE OAK, a 423-ton bark built in 1832. The smallest is the ELLEN RODMAN, a 73-ton schooner built in 1844.

Mattapoisett truly provided the ships.

Pageant Contestants

MISS WAREHAM PAGEANT

Who will be Miss Wareham of 1968? The general public will discover this on Saturday night, May 11th, when the Wareham Chamber of Commerce sponsors the annual scholarship pageant at Town Hall. You can pretty safely determine to a degree here and now.

Taking a composite picture of the nine entries in this year's pageant determines that chances are Miss Wareham of 1968 will be a talented and pretty brunette standing five-foot three and one-half inches with lovely brown eyes and a future of further education among her plans.

The nine aspirants for the Miss Wareham crown and the various awards that are a factor in this gala event were introduced recently at the first annual scholarship ball, also sponsored by the Wareham Chamber of Commerce at White Cliffs in Plymouth. They included Martha Monstrand, Colleen Jcyce, Donna DesJardins, Brenda Pierce and Barbara Gallus of Wareham; Lizbeth Pablo of Mattapoisett; Becky Ann Zora of Marion; Noreen McConnell of Plymouth and

These talented young ladies are not vying for their first awards in their young lives. For example, Miss Montrand already this year has cooked her way to the Betty Crocker Homemaker award. This talented singer accomplished this feat while continuing other activities such as chairman of St. Patrick's CYO, as vice-president of the Wareham Code Club and as a member of the Wareham High School girls' basketball team for the past five years. A very active member of the Wareham senior class, Martha hopes to continue her education at Cape Cod Community College.

Becky Ann Zora is no stranger to pageant fans. She won the Miss Cranberry Bowl crown in 1966 as a student at Old Rochester Regional High School from which she will graduate this June. This talented artist also won the coveted DAR award and is designer of the school letter head. A cheerleader at ORR, she also serves on the traffic patrol, is art editor of the yearbook, was named most dependable as one who has done the most for her school, and also was winner of a free art course at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. She already has been accepted

A talented pianist, Miss Pablo won a competition in which she played as solo pianist with the New Bedford Symphony orchestra. She also was the victor of the Voice of Democracy contest at Old Rochester this year where she also is active in the Math Club and as a Student Council member. Secretary of the National Honor Society for a year, she was awarded a letter of commendation by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. This Mattapoisett Miss already is planning her future and has been accepted at Vassar College.

The popular Warehamite, Miss DesJardins will graduate from Chandler College for Women and is greatly interested in the field of business and computer programming. A Wareham graduate in 1967, she received the Elks leadership award, a Code Club scholarship and was recipient of the Grand Cross of Colors from the Rainbow Girls. The 1966 Cranberry Festival Queen, she also wore the crown of Miss Bristol County and as Valentine Queen Ball of the Rainbow Assembly and was first runner-up of the Miss VFW Teenage Pageant in 1965. A former president of the Wareham Code Club, she also served as vice-president and secretary of the Student Council and as past worthy advisor of the Wareham Assembly of Rainbow for Girls. This talented dancer also is a ski enthusiast.

dress designing and fashion commentary while enjoying a dancing background since a child. Awards are part of her young life as she has held the crown of Miss Bourne in 1966, was second runner-up as Cranberry Festival Queen in 1966 and third runner-up as Miss Fashion Queen while at Plymouth-Carver High School in 1965. A senior there, she is active in drama and literary circles while participating in the Pep Squad and school periodicals. During a stay in England, Miss McConnell, who makes her own clothes, was second runner-up to Miss Personality in 1965. She already has plans to attend Chamberlain School of Retailing.

Drama is the special interest of Priscilla Howard who has studied both at Bourne High School and in East Anchorage, Alaska, prior to attending the University of Alaska and studying at John Powers Finishing School. As Miss Cape Cod of 1967 she was third runner-up and preliminary swim-suit winner at last year's Miss Massachusetts Pageant. In 1965 she won a speech Wareham senior class, her specialty at the Miss Wareham Pageant will be baton twirling in which she had advanced training.

Another West Warehamite, Miss Pierce is attending Fisher Junior College having graduated from Wareham High School last June. This talented vocalist is a member of the First Congregational Church choir and youth fellowship. As a Wareham student she served as a student leader and was active in gymnastics as well as drama activities. She presently is employed in a Marion restaurant.

A future x-ray technician is the goal of Miss Joyce of Indian Mound Beach in Wareham. An applicant for further study at Cape Cod Hospital, this talented blonde also enjoys music through her study of the violin. A senior at Wareham she is a member of the school orchestra and has outdoor life interest in swimming and horseback riding. A member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, she also is active in girl scout programs.

These nine girls will be competing to wear the Miss Wareham crown now worn by Kathy Schaaf, a blond blue-eyed Queen from Mattapoisett. The winner of the many scholarship prizes awarded at the Chamber of Commerce event then will progress to the Miss Massachusetts Pageant in Attleboro in July with the hope of continuing into the Miss America Pageant, the grand-daddy of all pageants, scheduled for Atlantic City in September.

Elected to Phi Beta Kappa

Old Rochester Regional High School is pleased to announce that it has received word from the University of New Hampshire of the election of Mark W. Springgate, class of 1964, to membership in Phi Beta Kappa by the Beta Chapter of New Hampshire.

During his high school years, Mr. Springgate distinguished himself as a scholar, athlete and citizen. Among his many activities were participation in the track and cross country teams. As captain of the track team in his senior year, Mr. Springgate brought home honors from the state meet. His interest in literature led to his service during his last two years on the editorial board of The Owl, literary publication of Old Rochester. As a junior, Mr. Springgate won not only first prize in the Science Fair, but the Grand Prize for the entire fair. Following his graduation from Old Rochester, Mr. Springgate attended the University of New Hampshire at Durham where he is now a senior.

Mother's Day

Give Mother the most deserved treat of all ... a delicious dinner at the Bourne Mill. Her pleasure will make this a memorable occasion for the whole family. Call now for reservations: 759-4473.

THE BOURNE MILL

BUZZARDS BAY AT THE BOURNE BRIDGE

bridge, pool and cherry tree are Miss Vivian Cunha, class advisor; Sharon Young, chairman; Tracy Locke, Mr. James Pasquill, class advisor; Mr. Anthony Domingos, art director; James Archer and Douglas Macomber.

The walls of the cafeteria were completely covered by cherry and white crepe paper. Circular Japanese designs were hung over the wall covering. The throne for the queen was an intricate wrought iron settee enclosed in a pagoda. Japanese lanterns and table centerpieces with tiny parasols added to the atmosphere.

Sandra Arruda was crowned queen of the prom for which Art Perry's orchestra played for dancing.
